

White Awake 101

Introduction to race, racism and whiteness

White Awake 101 is an online learning community facilitated by Peter Caulfield.

The course requires between 2 to 4 hours per week online. This time should be split between 2 or 3 separate days

The course runs 6 weeks.

Maximum enrollment, 10 students.

Fee, $5.00

This is the initial offering of the course.

Class begins Monday, September 21, 2009

White Awake 101 is an online course sponsored by the Center for the Study of White American Culture, Inc.

Register now at:
<http://campus.euroamerican.org>

Center for the Study of White American Culture, Inc.
Online Campus

You will learn...

Week 1

Who is instructing this course?
Who are my co-participants?
What is self-identity?
What are some ways in which I self-identify?
What is whiteness?
How do I view myself in relation to whiteness?
What is racial identity?

Week 2

Who is considered a white person?
Who is considered a person of color?
Are there experiences brought on by being white?
How does it feel to be a white person?
How do white people feel about being white?
What is colorblindness?

Week 3

What are white social models?
How many models for racial awareness do white people have?
What is white supremacy?
Where do these social models come from?
How do these social models serve contemporary white people?
How do many whites deal with having only these social models?

Week 4

What is dual consciousness?
How does dual consciousness manifest in many contemporary whites?
What are stereotypes?
Where do stereotypes come from?

Week 5

What is the story behind the founding of our country?
Do the events of our country's past affect us today?
What is race?
Where does the concept of race originate?
What is racialization?
What is genetics?
What are phenotypes?
What are some things handed down from historic white Americans to modern day whites?

Week 6

Do white people have a culture?
What is culture?
What are some of the main attributes and assumptions of white American culture?
What is rugged individualism?
What is meritocracy?
Is meritocracy a myth?
What is hierarchy?
What is a dominant culture?