

LIVE, INTERACTIVE WEBINAR

What White People Can Do About Racism

Fundamentals, Part 1

United States society is historically and presently structured by race. White people have a privileged position within that structure. Many white people understand this implicitly and are uncomfortable with the inherent unfairness, but do not know what to do about it. This workshop is intended to give white people some basic knowledge about:

- racial structure
- building connections and cross-racial alliances
- finding direction on your journey as an effective change agent
- building a personal support network for the work you do

The workshop is appropriate for white people who are open to learning more about racism, and what they can do. The workshop is also appropriate for people of color who want to support white people taking action against racism.

The 6-hour workshop takes place over 3 sessions:

Session 1: Saturday, Mar. 30, 5:00 to 7:00 PM Eastern (2:00 to 4:00 Pacific)

Session 2: Saturday, Apr. 13, 5:00 to 7:00 PM Eastern (2:00 to 4:00 Pacific)

Session 3: Saturday, Apr. 27, 5:00 to 7:00 PM Eastern (2:00 to 4:00 Pacific)

Can't make all three dates? No problem. Video recordings are available to registered participants for later viewing.

Registration: $75

REGISTER NOW

<https://conta.cc/2GgvS0W>

The workshop touches on several topics in an introductory way, including:

- the origin of white identity
- colorblindness and color consciousness
- feelings about cross-racial relationships
- feelings about white identity
- anti-racist activism
- how to be an ally
- the impact of racism on white people
- how to develop a support network
- resources for further study and personal development

More information available at euroamerican.org

The ONLINE EXPERIENCE

Join us in this guided experience at a location of your choosing using the Zoom online conferencing app. Zoom is free, and quick and easy to download. The workshop format varies between didactic presentation, small group discussion, large group discussion, and slideshow presentations.

This workshop is brought to you by the Center for the Study of White American Culture, a multiracial organization whose mission is to build an equitable society in the United States by decentering white culture and centering an anti-racist, multiracial culture free of white supremacy. Learn more about us at euroamerican.org