Wed Day One: Meet with other white anti-racists involved or interested in organizing for racial justice to share experiences and resources.

Sat Day Two: Focus on what it would take to build an anti racist movement among white people. This includes building a national network and accountability to people of color.

ABOUT THE SUMMIT

The White Anti-racist Summit meets every year at the White Privilege Conference. This will be the 3rd Annual Summit. The Summit calls anyone who has been organizing white people to challenge and oppose racism. This includes white people in anti-racist support, educational, study, consciousness-raising, and action groups, and people of color working in relationship with these white people.

The Summit provides participants the opportunity to organize groups and networks to sustain, enhance and expand anti-racist activity on an ongoing basis. It is valuable for folks to attend both days of the Summit to maximize the experience

REGISTRATION FEE- $175 gets you everything WPC 8 and SUMMIT 3 !!!

The summit has a separate registration that allows summit participants to register for WPC8 at a reduced rate. You get to attend the entire White Privilege Conference when you register for the 2 day Summit all for the low price of $175.

Please register by April 1st, 2007 to avoid late fee

WPC8 regular rate - $175

Summit only, 1 day, regular rate: $75

WPC8 student rate - $125

Summit only, 1 day, student rate: $50

WED- DAY ONE 9am-5pm

Meet with other white anti-racists and people of color involved or interested in organizing for racial justice. Popular education workshop with a focus on structured storytelling and different racial justice organizing strategies based on: 1) regions of the U.S.; 2) intergenerational differences; and 3) sector organizing (e.g. faith-based, electoral, direct action, etc.) Bring a 1 page description of your organization (50 copies).

SAT- DAY TWO 9am-5pm

The second day of the Summit will build on day 1 and focus on what it will take to build an anti racist movement among white people, which includes exploring building a national network, and accountability to people of color. The day will have 3 primary sections: 1) to determine what it would take to build an anti racist movement among white people; 2) to identify principles and best practices for working in accountable alliances with people of color; 3) and to define an initial vision for what role a national network infrastructure could play in building local capacity and the ability to speak with a collective national voice.
